

On this day in 1835, Samuel Langhorne Clemens, Mark Twain, was born in Florida, Missouri. During his life he worked as a newspaper reporter, riverboat pilot, and later a writer of fiction. Looking at the riverboat above, how do you think travel may have been different compared to the boats of today?

Prompt created by: www.theteacherscorner.net © 2006
Photo: © http://www.istockphoto.com/user_view.php?id=1064814